More kudos for John Gifford. Some of his bosses in the strategy office within the Office of the Sec of Def dropped us a note to let everyone know that the Sec of Def awarded John the Joint Service Achievement Medal in November for his work during last summer's internship! Congrats, John. P.S. The note was signed by a joint service team.

Two APBs this time, one for Chuck Mitchell and one for Kim Cochrane.

Thanks again to all of you who have checked in on the Internet and continue to provide us with positive feedback. We're having a great time with the column and always welcome your letters, jibes, and updates. The class e-mail list boasts more than 100 addresses including almost all the contributors to this column. If you want to get in touch with someone, zap us a line and we'll include you on the list.

We hope everyone had a merry Christmas and that the new year brings you all the best. Our prayers to all of our classmates in the former Yugoslavian states. I have one thing to say to Larry Brede. "B-R-A-D-Y" (remembering OBC days). To quote Larry's "F-I and Proud!!!" newsletter Dan Kirk got hitched and found out that PMCS does not stand for "Parachutes Make Counteroffensives Simpler." (Brede, L., F-I and Proud!!!, APR 95).

Morgan Hanlon dropped an announcement for 8 of our classmates who graduated from Wharton School of Business in September. Bill Reed, Dale Furrow, and Kevin Reeves work for ENRON in Dallas while Tim Parietti, Scott Surek, Paul Morton, John Dluzak, and Morgan are plying their wares on Wall Street. Beth Cain (Jeff's wife) sent the photo of Jeff Schorr's wedding in April. The "Cainster" is juggling his 2d year at USUHS with his two daughters, Breanna and Caitlyn. Erin "EPE" Edgar is back in that family practice thing after a two-year stint as the 82d Avn Bde surgeon and his TV debut in the IRTC welcome video. We will be saluting Doctor (MAJ) Edgar at this time next year. Speaking of JRTC, I ran into Jay "Jump-Ruckerman" Beckerman down in that lovely 3d world country of Cortina. Jay and I were pitted mono-y-mono in both the defense and the offense and Jay, as usual, taught me a lesson each time (though if he hadn't had to go to AARs, he would have been a "dead tent" occupant on both occasions). Good job, Jay, and thanks again.

Jerry Kobylski dropped his holiday wishes from semester break at Georgia Tech, striving for his MS in Ops Research. Trudy works in managed health care in her new pediatric clinic. Tyler Lee Randolph is now a bona fide legal bubba and en route to the Screamin' Eagles. Steve Hart finished up command of C/8th Engineers at Ft. Hood and will soon do the Leavenworth short tour before grad school. Steve sent a photo of the La Fayette, GA, FD held biannually at the Dinner Bell Restaurant, state farm road 28, Muscogee County Georgia. The older "old grad" is LTC (Ret.) Charles Hillhouse '39, a true American hero who piloted B17 bombers in both theaters of WWII and commanded a bomber group in the Korean conflict.

Karson Snyder '85 sent his deepest sympathies to the family of Chris Williams. Karson had been Chris's sponsor during CTLT in 4-8 INF in

RHYMES OF A RED CROSS MAN

*So you'll live, you'll live, Young Fellow,
My Lad,
In the gleam of the evening star,
In the wood-note wild and the laugh of the child,
In all sweet things that are.
And you'll never die, my wonderful boy,
While life is noble and true;
For all our beauty and hope and joy
We will owe to our lads like you.*

A memorial scholarship has been established in the hometown of CPT Christopher E. Williams, who was killed in a training accident on 18 Jul 95 at Ft. Sill, OK.

Scholarships will be awarded yearly to graduates of J. Frank Dobie HS in Houston, TX, where CPT Williams graduated in 1984. Recipients will exemplify the characteristics that made CPT Williams loved by so many—leadership, dedication, and a passion for education and participation.

Contributions to the Christopher E. Williams Memorial Leadership Scholarship can be sent to Texas Commerce Bank, Attn.: Jackie Collins, 11222 South Belt Drive, Houston, TX 77089.

For additional information, please contact Jodie Kőszegi at 713 526-5395.
